BOOK REVIEW OF
HEIDI
Main Characters: Heidi, Peter, Clara, Grandfather, Peter Rottenmeier
Heidi is written by Johanna Spyri. It is a storybook of a girl named Heidi who is an orphan and sent to the Swiss mountains to live with her grandfather. Later she was taken to Frankfurt to live as a companion by her aunt Reti. I like this book because Heidi is a chirpy girl who is always grateful and contented no matter what her situation. This book shows the beauty of nature and tells about the power of faith and the magic of prayers.

National Reading Day...
In India, National Reading Day is observed every year on the 19th June. National Reading Day is celebrated to spread awareness among the young generation about the importance of reading.
The habit of reading should be developed in everyone because reading not only increase our knowledge but also make the individual pacific, concentrate and patient.
National Reading Day is known as Vaayandina and this name is given by the Government of India.

Book: The Gingerbread Man

Author: Lady Bird Books

Book Review by: Aarna Tanwar, Class II Shivam

I read this book as it was gifted by my mother. The book is about the Gingerbread Man who was baked by old man and woman. But he outsmarts them and runs away very fast from everyone that comes his way until he came near the river and met with an evil fox. Fox make him believe that he will help Gingerbread man in crossing river besides the evil thought of eating him.

I loved the lines that Gingerbread Man sang when he outruns everyone.

Run ! Run !!

As fast as you can !

You can't catch me

I am the Gingerbread Man !!

The moral of the story is that one should never taunt about his ability to outrun others. Also, one should be careful in trusting anyone easily.

The Tortoise and the Fish

Once upon a time, in the middle of a dense forest, there was a lake filled with lotuses. Two fish lived in the lake. One day, they saw a sad tortoise, Why are you so sad, dear friend? Come and play with us. One evening, the tortoise saw three fishermen walking towards the lake with fishing nets. There are fishermen coming to get us. Let us get away from here. Don't worry! We will watch out for them, fish said. The tortoise felt helpless and decided to save himself. And pray his friends. Tortoise missed his friends.

Moral:- When faced with danger, act wisely. 😊

My favourite bedtime story
My favourite bedtime story book is
"Bedtime Stories" by Kieran Nagarkar.
It has 50 stories in it.
• All the stories are very funny.
• It has many pictures in it.
• I read it daily at night.
• I love reading because it increases
my knowledge.

Book review

“Noddy Wishes on a Star”

is a book from one of the children’s most favourite Character from the books ‘Noddy’.

This book was published by “Alligator Books Limited” and written by Enid Marry Blyton who was a famous writer of kids’ books

It is a delightful pop-up book with Hard Cover quality which would attract children of age 4 and up.

In this story, Noddy wishes a present for his friend Big-Ears but it has dire consequences! The book is very interesting for children and teaches them some lesson too. All in all , the book is great and kids should read it.

How coronavirus Changed our lives

The lockdown has made us realise the importance of actually appreciating the things and people that we take for granted, but what it has taught us is the spirit of togetherness and helping others where we can.

Earlier for us, it was a compulsion to go to school but during pandemic we realised that going to school was such a fun.. meeting our teachers and friends was a blessing.

Due to lockdown we were forced to live inside because of which our mental and physical health has got affected a lot.. In order to pass their time, kids got habitual of watching cartoons and YouTube, because of this many of my friends got spectacles on their eyes..

Street vendors has the biggest financial loss due to covid they lost all their savings by staying at home and earning nothing.

Also it has given us a lesson that as we cant inhale carbon dioxide all the time in masks in the same way we should not pollute our mother nature. We should nourish it in order to get a better life.

Thank god its gone now and we are back to school, everything is getting normal like before.
