The Children of UKG Coral celebrate the 'republic' to honour the heroes and celebrate the date on which the constitution of India came into effect.

26th January 1929, was the day the Indian National Congress issued the declaration of India's Independence, opposing the British Regime's Dominion Status.

The background features a vibrant, stylized illustration of various leaves and a watermelon slice. The leaves are in shades of red, orange, yellow, green, and purple, with some having detailed vein patterns. A slice of watermelon with black seeds is visible in the bottom left corner. The overall style is flat and modern.
