Teacher's Day
A heartfelt thank you to all the teachers who spend their, time, energy and love to educate our children.

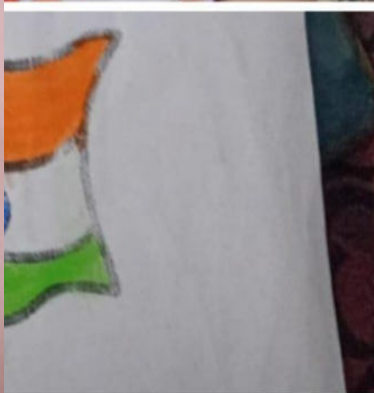

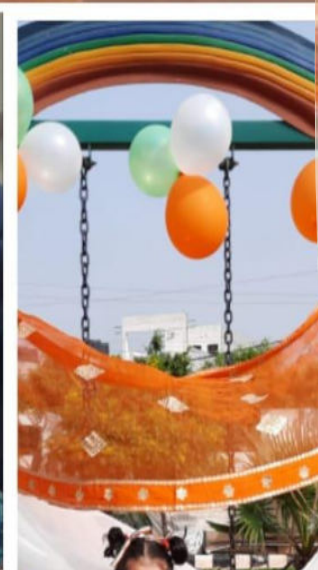

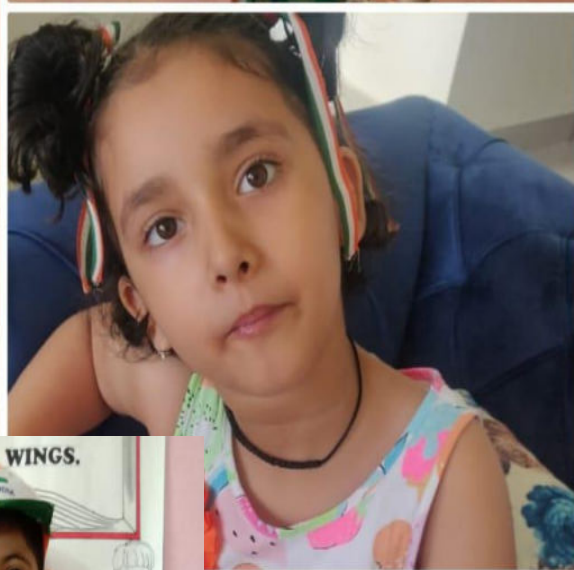

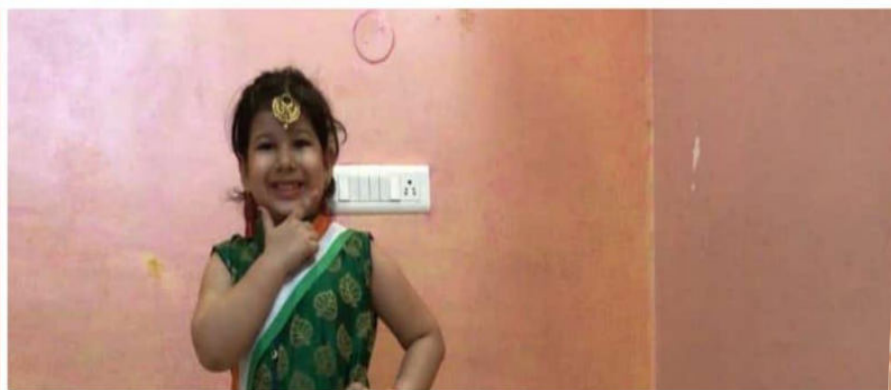

The Children of UKG Coral interpreted their perception of Krishnji in all his avatars on the day of 'Janmashtami'. Boys portraying Krishnji, whilst the girls decide to don the avatar of Radha and Gopi's.

The festival of Janmashtami is celebrated to mark the birth of lord Krishna. The class made the event luminous and energetic with their dresses.

"I am the beginning, the middle and end of creation"

- Lord Krishna, Bhagvad Gita

The Children of UKG Coral celebrate Independence Day online!

2021 marks the 75th year of India's independence. The class has adorned the tri-colour flag to pay homage to all the freedom fighters and military officers that has provided for India's safety and independence for so long.

FREEDOM IN MIND,
FAITH IN WORDS,
PRIDE IN OUR HEART,
MEMORIES IN OUR SOULS,
LET'S SALUTE THE NATION
THIS INDEPENDENCE DAY...

Jai Hind!

The background features a vibrant autumn-themed illustration. On the left, there is a large yellow sun partially obscured by various colorful leaves in shades of red, orange, teal, and purple. In the bottom left corner, a slice of watermelon with black seeds is visible. The overall style is flat and modern.

Raksha
Bandhan

Rakshabandhan

also called the festival of Rakhi is a well known festival of India celebrated in the month of Saavan on a full moon day. It represents the special bond of affection, love and care shared between brothers and sisters. Little munchkins of UKG Garnet celebrated the occasion with full ardour and fervour. Here is a glimpse of their cherished memories.

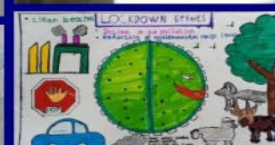

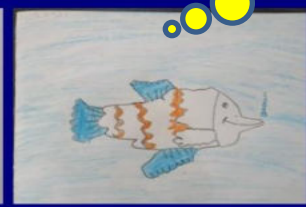

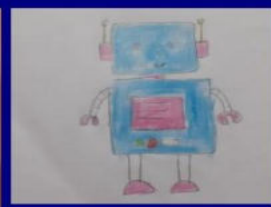

“THE ONLY WAY YOU CAN CONQUER ME IS THROUGH LOVE, AND THERE I AM GLADLY CONQUERED.”

Celebration of Janmashtami

To seek the blessings of Lord Krishna, Janmashtami was celebrated by little bhavanites with mirth and joy. The students dressed up as lord Krishna and Radha, complete with flutes, peacock feathers and matkas. Children enjoyed singing bhajans and dancing on Krishna Radha songs.
