NAVRATRI POEM

The temple priest has rung his bell
A cloud of smoke from candles and lamps
Haloes the Goddess, glowing bright
This beat of drums both maddens and dulls.
The incense burns: so heady the musk,
Our senses flounder in the flood.
This endless chant of sacred words
Soon drugs our lips and stuns our minds.
The Goddess, always staring down:
Her painted pupils cut through smoke
And read the secret thoughts we think.
We somehow feel this within our hearts
To Mother, we know, we bow and pray –
Her form not just this image of clay

AMAZING FACTS

- The Durga Puja we celebrate in October isn't the actual Durga Puja.
- It's Known as Akaal Bodhan ,an ultimately sacrifice where Lord Rama prayed to the Goddess before battling Ravana.
- The actual Durga Puja is celebrated in March and is popularly known as Chaitra Basanti Puja, just before Ram Navami.

- Dussehra comes from the Sanskrit word Dash Hara, which translates to 'the defeat of the Sun' in English. According to Hindu scriptures, if Lord Rama had not defeated Ravana, the Sun would have never risen again.
- Dussehra is celebrated in Ashwin, the 10th month of the Hindu Calendar. It falls sometime around October or November.
- In some sub-cultures of Hinduism, Dussehra is also called Vijay Dashmi, which means victory on the tenth day. It is celebrated as Vijay Dashmi to mark the victory of Goddess Durga over the Demon King Mahishasura.
- Mahishasura was the king of demons or Asura, and was very powerful. He would torture innocent people. At that time, Shakti was created by the collective powers of Brahma, Vishnu and Mahesh to put an end to the evil doings of Mahishasura.

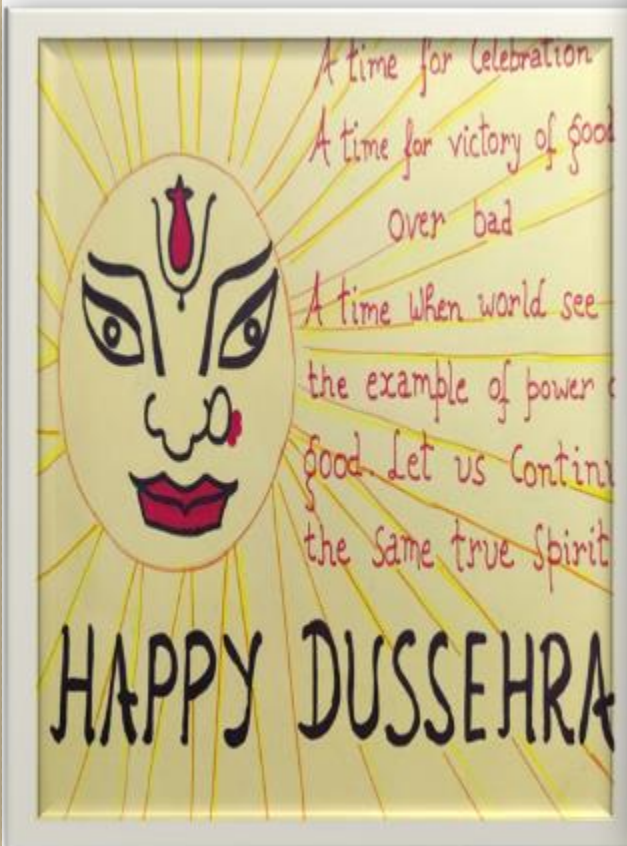

- Polar Bear have no natural enemies.
- Drinking too much water at once can change your salt content in blood and kill you.
- The 5,300 old iceman mummy ate a hearty meal shortly before he died.
- Leopard seals eat as many as 15 penguins a day.

“कोरोना का कहर”

दुनिया इतनी बदल सी गई है कि आज हम अपने ही मित्रों को मिलने से डरते हैं। जहाँ पहले हम सब खुलकर मिलते थे वहाँ आज हम एक-दूसरे को मिलने से कतराते हैं। आजकल हम अपने परिवारों के साथ घरों में कैद हैं, पर इससे हम कुछ नई और अच्छी बातें भी सीख रहे हैं। कुछ समय लगेगा, नया सवेरा आने में। हम तब तक इट कर मुकाबला करेंगे। हारेगे नहीं, एक दिन जीत ही जाएंगे। इस कोरोना महामारी से एक दिन हम जीत हॉस्पिल कर लेंगे। फिर एक दिन बच्चे बागीचों में दिसेंगे, सड़कें भी भीड़ से भर जाएंगी। कोई किसी को गले लगाने से नहीं डरेगा। हमारी पुरानी खुशियों से भरी दुनिया लौट आएगी।
